

Join us for International Women's Day on Facebook Live on Sunday 7 March at 7 p.m. GMT

As the world of work changes, it is important not to replicate structures of the past that supported men having most of the key positions in new and emerging industries. That is why we support the theme of International Women's Day 2021, #ChooseToChallenge.

We #ChooseToChallenge ourselves and our 85 Member countries and regions to promote an environment in which skills have no gender.

As millions of talented young women fear their dreams are about to vanish due to the pandemic, they should know they are not alone, that WorldSkills and many more millions stand with them.

Ahead of International Women's Day, join us for a WorldSkills Champion Talk Facebook Live on 7 March (7 p.m. GMT), featuring #SkilledWomen and men sharing what a gender-equal world means to them, and ways you can #ChooseToChallenge inequality.
