2. Impromptu Speech

- a. Order of presentations will be determined through a random selection process. Each competitor and proctor will be given the date and time for the impromptu presentation.
- b. The proctor will be the timekeeper for the student's speech preparation (2 min)

- c. The proctor will be the timekeeper for the student's speech. The proctor will have cue cards ready for holding up. The proctor will hold up timecards at the 2 minute, 1 minute, and 15 second points to indicate time remaining during response. This is the only time cue cards are used during the competition.
- d. The judges will type the questions for the student in the chat. The Proctor will read each question as written. It can be repeated once.
- e. The judges will speak with the competitor after the speech and the questions have been completed.
- f. Zoom will be the virtual medium used for this section.
- g. Please sign this below to show that you have read and accept this document and the rules and expectations within it.

3. Recording of the prepared speech

The proctor for the event on site will set aside a room with the technology to link the competitor with the judges. The proctor will be responsible for ensuring that all the rules and time frames are followed.

- a. The proctor will have all the equipment set up before the competitor enters the room. The student may have 5 minutes to become comfortable with the setting.
- b. The proctor will give the student a 30 second warning to be in place and a 5 second warning before turning on the recording equipment or Zoom.
- c. Any piece of recording equipment may be used for the long speech as long as there is no special playback app, program needed. Please check with the Public Speaking chair If you are unsure.
- d. Please leave recording running for about 3 seconds after speech ends.
- e. DO NOT, under any circumstances, show the recording to the competitor.
- f. The proctor must send the recording right after the speech has ended. Send by email to jfox@sd59.bc.ca Please ensure that the competitor's name, speech title, and the proctor name are in the Subject line.

4. Written speech

a. The proctor will ensure that the written copy of the speech is sent at least 2 days BEFORE the scheduled recording of the speech. (See deadlines at top of the page)

- b. Please ensure that has a title page with a title, the competitor's name, the date, and the proctor's name

4. Audience

- a. There may be an audience, but they must be silent and out of camera view.
- b. There may not be any prompting from the audience members in any form.
