

Newsletter

Below is an important safety message from WorkSafeBC.

Stay safe everyone!

Skills Canada BC Team

---

As an individual or organization that either works with or is a conduit to new and young workers, some of whom may still be actively working, you may be in a position to communicate this information to them. Please consider sharing this information with these workers, where possible, to promote awareness of COVID-19 work-related information via your communications channels: through links on your website, in newsletters you distribute, through social media, or via other means.

Information for workers is available on the WorkSafeBC COVID-19 information and resources web page, including:

- What workers should do
- Staying safe at work
- Information specific to various industries

For more information about the COVID-19 situation, including public health alerts and FAQs, please see the COVID-19 pages on the following websites:

- HealthLinkBC
- BC Centre for Disease Control
- Public Health Agency of Canada

Thank you very much for considering ways you can share this information with new and young workers. If you have any ideas or suggestions on how to further communicate these resources, please feel free to contact me.

Newsletter

Take care.

Robin

Robin Schooley

Industry Specialist, Young & New Worker Program
OHS Consultation & Education Services
WorkSafeBC

Ph: 778-554-0089

robin.schooley@worksafebc.com

As more information and resources about COVID-19 become available, we will continue to update the COVID-19 section of our website at worksafebc.com. Follow us on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Instagram, and YouTube for the latest announcements, jobs, workplace health and safety resources, and news from WorkSafeBC.