

Newsletter

Young Worker Safety Session with WorkSafeBC and Skills Canada BC in Honour of BC Youth Week

In honour of BC Youth Week, WorksafeBC and Skills Canada BC partnered to present a Young Worker Safety Session.

Skills Canada BC alumni, Sonia Khurana hosted this Q&A session with Shannon Corbeil and Andrew Kidd, experts from the WorkSafeBC prevention team.

Please click the image below to watch the half hour recorded session and learn more about young worker safety. Know your rights and responsibilities as a young worker in the workplace.

Skills Canada British Columbia
New and Young Worker Safety | Virtual QandA Session

Sonia Khurana
Skills Canada BC Alumni

Andrew Kidd
Prevention Field Services Manager

Shannon Corbeil
Occupational Safety Officer

Recognizing the importance of Safety, Skills Canada BC runs a Workplace Safety Competition in addition to many Regional and Provincial competitions.

Newsletter

Please click here to view the Workplace Safety Competition documents and other Provincial competition documents.

This is just one of the many trades and technology-based competitions that students can get involved with including our new online challenges this year.

Best regards,

Elaine Allan, BA, MBA
Executive Director